

Ph.D. Programs of Study

Each of these program plans are individualized to the student's needs.

Sample Full-time Course of Study^a

YEAR	SUMMER SEMESTER	FALL SEMESTER	SPRING SEMESTER
1	Management of Health Data ^b Summer Residency Session I	Evolution of Nursing Knowledge Advanced Statistics Theories and Research in Health Promotion ^c or Methods	Theory Development and Research in Nursing I Advanced Statistics or Theories and Research in Chronic Illness Contemporary Dimensions of Research in Nursing
2	Advanced Statistics or Methods Summer Residency Session II	Theory Development and Research in Nursing II Cognates	New Methods Course Cognate
3	Dissertation Seminar I Summer Residency Session III Contemporary Issues in Nursing	Qualifying Exam	Dissertation Research (& consequent semesters to total 18 credits)
4	Dissertation Seminar II Summer Residency Session IV

^a Research Experience can be taken anytime. ^b Can also be taken during Summer PY 2.

^c Student takes either 705:625 or 705:626.

Sample Part-time Course of Study^a

YEAR	SUMMER SEMESTER	FALL SEMESTER	SPRING SEMESTER
1	Management of Health Data ^b Summer Residency Session I	Evolution of Nursing Knowledge Advanced Statistics or Theories and Research in Health Promotion ^c	Theory Development and Research in Nursing I Advanced Statistics or Methods
2	Advanced Statistics or Methods Summer Residency Session II	Theory Development and Research in Nursing II Theories and Research in Health Promotion ^d or Methods or Cognate	Contemporary Dimensions of Research in Nursing New Methods Course
3	Dissertation Seminar I Contemporary Issues in Nursing Summer Residency Session III	Cognate Qualifying Exam	Theories and Research in Chronic Illness if needed Dissertation Research (& consequent semesters to total 18 credits)
4	Dissertation Seminar II

^a Research Experience can be taken anytime. ^b Can also be taken during Summer PY 2.

^c Student takes either 705:625 or 705:626.