You’re planning a visit to one or both of Rutgers University’s campuses in Newark. This guide will help you find your way around the university, and around the city Rutgers calls home in northern New Jersey.

We’ve made recommendations for where to eat, where to stay, and what you might want to do and explore in your spare time in Newark.

More information available at newark.rutgers.edu/visit-us

Whether you are here to find out more about Rutgers’ academic programs and facilities, or the neighborhoods we live in, at the end of the day it’s the people of Rutgers University and our city that make us special, and will make you feel welcome here.
QUICK FACTS

RUTGERS UNIVERSITY-NEWARK

Founded: 1908
Joined Rutgers: 1946
Campus Size: 38 acres, 33 buildings
Schools/Colleges: 7
Undergraduate Majors: 40+
Graduate Programs: 50+ (JD, MA, MBA, MFA, MPA, MS, Ph.D.)
Athletics: 14 NCAA Division III women and men’s teams
Libraries: 4
U.S. News & World Report Best Colleges (2014) top tier national universities; number one in diversity for national universities
ENROLLMENT (MATRICULATED STUDENTS)
Total: approximately 12,000
Undergraduates: approximately 60%
Graduates: approximately 40%
SUMMER/WINTER SESSION ENROLLMENT
6,000+
FACULTY
Full-time Faculty: 575+
Faculty with Ph.D. or J.D.: 99%
STUDENTS
Male/Female Ratio: 50:50
Student/Faculty Ratio: 15:1
Nations Represented: 100+
On-campus Residents: 1,280

More info at newark.rutgers.edu

QUICK FACTS

RUTGERS BIOMEDICAL AND HEALTH SCIENCES

RHBS is the multisite academic health and patient services division at Rutgers, with locations in Newark, New Brunswick, Piscataway, and elsewhere.
Established: 2013
Campus Size: 66 acres
Schools/Colleges: 8
Undergraduate Majors: 14
Graduate Programs: 37
Libraries: 4
ENROLLMENT (MATRICULATED STUDENTS)
Total: 8083
Undergraduates: 2501
Graduates: 5582
FACULTY
Full-time Faculty: 1628
Faculty with Ph.D. or M.D.: 97%
STUDENTS
Male/Female Ratio: 36:68
Student/Faculty Ratio: 3:1
Nations Represented: 104
On-campus Residents: 453

More info at rbhs.rutgers.edu/

THE CITY OF NEWARK

Newark is New Jersey’s largest city and a center of business, commerce, education, entertainment, and the arts. From the Spanish-Portuguese-Brazilian culture of the Ironbound district to University Heights and the downtown arts district, it’s a city with a diverse and vibrant metropolitan appeal.

You name it, Newark has it — from world-class museums, performing arts centers, and sports arenas, to beautiful parks and first-class restaurants, and all within a 15-minute train ride from New York City.

Newark also has a reputation as one of America’s most dynamic college towns. More than 50,000 undergraduate and graduate students attend classes in the downtown area and in University Heights. Neighboring the two Rutgers campuses in Newark are Essex County College and the New Jersey Institute of Technology.
HOW TO GET HERE AND HOW TO GET AROUND
From any direction, Rutgers University in Newark is easily accessible by car, train, bus, or plane. And once you’re here, you can take advantage of the inter-campus bus system that makes getting around town easy.

GETTING HERE BY CAR
From any direction, Rutgers University in Newark is easily accessible by car, train, bus, or plane. And once you’re here, you can take advantage of the inter-campus bus system that makes getting around town easy.

GETTING HERE BY TRAIN, BUS, AND PLANE
NJ Transit
• Rutgers Biomedical and Health Sciences (University Heights)
• Rutgers University-Newark (downtown)

GETTING HERE BY PLANE
Newark Liberty International Airport
• Newark Liberty International Airport

GETTING AROUND CAMPUS
Intercampus Rutgers in Newark bus service

WHERE TO EAT
Rutgers University is located in one of the best cities in the country for arts, culture, and entertainment. Choose your interest - classical, pop, jazz, opera, ballet or modern dance... American, European, Tibetan, or African art... parks, baseball, history, architecture, theater... it’s all here or just a short walk or ride from our campuses.

THINGS TO SEE AND DO
Rutgers University is located in one of the best cities in the country for arts, culture, and entertainment. Choose your interest - classical, pop, jazz, opera, ballet or modern dance... American, European, Tibetan, or African art... parks, baseball, history, architecture, theater... it’s all here or just a short walk or ride from our campuses.