Identify your ability to provide Self-Compassion

"If your compassion does not include yourself, it is incomplete."
- Jack Kornfield
What is self-compassion?

1. Self Kindness
   - We are as caring toward ourselves as we are toward others.

2. Recognizing Our Common Humanity
   - Shared human experience
   - Pain
   - Moment of connection with others

3. Mindfulness
   - Being open to the reality of the present moment.
   - Acknowledge our suffering without exaggerating it.

- Be Kind to Yourself
- Research and more research
- A happy life
- Self-compassion: a source of strength and resilience

Think back to your childhood—what made you feel better when you were sick or sad or lonely? (a place, story, person, food, activity. . .)

List them as your poll responses. At least 3 to 5 things that gave you comfort.

2. ______________________________________
3. ______________________________________
4. ______________________________________
5. ______________________________________
Think about the last time you were upset, stressed out, sad, or just plain out of sorts!

List 3-5 things that give you comfort NOW (a book, person, music, poem, movie, song . . .) List them as your poll responses.

Take a few moments to finish each side of the paper—as a child and now as an adult.

Look at both lists. Think about the similarities in your self-care activities — as a child and as an adult.

How OFTEN do you practice self-care. . . .
In the past 2 days?
The past week?
Past two weeks?
Past month?
SOMETIMES THE MOST IMPORTANT THING IN A WHOLE DAY IS THE REST WE TAKE BETWEEN TWO DEEP BREATHS.
Time to Breathe and Stretch........
Questions?

Let us know how you are doing!
