

The Nurse Practitioner will be assessing, diagnosing, and treating patients; interpreting laboratory tests; providing education and appropriate management for patients in need of reproductive related services. Work closely with physicians and other clinicians in a team approach to patient care. This provider may have some on-call and weekend responsibilities.

This position is full-time position, Monday through Friday, located in Center City with travel to our King of Prussia location.

This job requires early morning monitoring. The estimated start time would be approximately 6:30am

The Nurse Practitioner will be assessing, diagnosing, and treating patients; interpreting laboratory tests; providing education and appropriate management for patients in need of reproductive related services. Work closely with physicians and other clinicians in a team approach to patient care. This provider may have some on-call and weekend responsibilities.

Essential Responsibilities:

- Perform thorough infertility evaluation to include ultrasonography, routine gynecological exams, endometrial biopsy, and interpretation of laboratory values.
- Collaborate with physician in developing and implementing treatment plan appropriate to individual patient.
- Perform sono-hysterograms and ultrasonography.
- Intra-Uterine Insemination.
- Preparation for patients preparing to undergo In-Vitro Fertilization, and monitor subsequent cycles.
- Monitor established pregnancies via ultrasonography and laboratory values through the first trimester.
- Supervise clinical staff, implement organizational systems, oversee personnel scheduling and issues.
- Perform role of liaison for clinical staff and supervising physician to ensure quality medical care and address issues for improvement.
- Provide patient counseling and education on pertinent health issues

Position Requirements:

- Current license in advanced practice, BSN or MSN preferred.
- Successful completion of advanced practitioner training and certification as a practitioner from an approved nurse practitioner program.
- At least 1 year of reproductive endocrinology and infertility experience.
- Specialization in women's health, current state registered nurse license, current state license as an advanced registered nurse practitioner with prescriptive authority.
- Ability to speak, write and read English. High level of listening & counseling skills.
- Aptitude to work independently and demonstrate good judgment.
- Ability to access, input, and retrieve information from a computer.
- Must be able to work weekends and holidays as assigned.
- May require unanticipated need to work beyond scheduled shift due to patient care needs.